Tunis, May 31, N. S. The Britiſh Ship Heſter, William Painter Maſter, was lately in her Voyage from Genoa to Meſſina, ſeized off Stombolo near the Phare of Meſſina by a Cruiſer of this Place, and under Pretence that ſhe had not a proper Paſs was carried into Port Farine. Mr. Lawrence the Britiſh Conſul here having Notice of it from the Maſter, applied to the Bey; who after preſſing Sollicitations gave Orders on the 20th Inſtant for her being releaſed, which accordingly was done, the Maſter and Mariners having every thing reſtored to them. On the 25th the ſaid Maſter went on board his Ship at the Goletta, and ſailed for Meſſina.

Cadiz, June 8, N. S. Some Days ago a Ship called the Neptune, which had been fitted out by a French Merchant here for the Canaries, and was in a Readineſs to ſail, was ſeized by her Crew of 29 Frenchmen, who ſecured the Maſter, and got out to Sea, reſolving to turn Pyrates. A Brigantine of Galloway in Ireland, called the two Brothers, Thomas Willis Maſter, which ſailed from hence the 2d Inſtant, was the next Day met and plundered by theſe Pyrates, ſo that ſhe was forced to return hither for new Supplies of Proviſions, Rigging, and other Things. Commodore Scott has ſent out the Lime and Trial, in queſt of the ſaid Pyrate-Ship, which carries 12 Guns.

Gibraltar, June 11, N. S. The remaining Part of his Majeſty's Preſent to the Emperour of Morocco, on Occaſion of the Peace lately made, having been received at Tetuan by Mr. Hatfield the Britiſh Conſul the End of April laſt, and ſent up to the Emperour, he immediately ordered ſuch Britiſh Subjects as were Captives to be delivered to Mr. Hatfield; and renewed his Orders to his Cruiſers not to moleſt any Britiſh Ship. The Captives ſo releaſed, being the Survivors of the Crew of the Ship Mary, are William Warren, Edward Slaughter, Richard Howell, and Samuel Blake. They were brought over hither in a Sloop Yeſterday, and will by the firſt Opportunity proceed to England.

Hague, July 2, N. S. The Marqueſs de Monteleone has received new Orders from the Court of Spain, to preſs the ſending the Squadron of five Men of War reſolved on here for the Mediterranean. On the 28th paſt he had a Conference on that Subject with the States Deputies, who gave him Hopes that the ſaid Squadron will be diſpatched with Orders to winter in the Ports of Spain, and that to this Purpoſe they will make uſe of two Frigates which are now cruizing for the Security of the Eaſt-India Fleet daily expected, joining to them three others which will be forthwith fitted out.

Paris, July 3, N. S. The Count de Maurepas, Secretary of State, is ill of the Small-Pox. On Thurſday laſt M. de la Vrilliere delivered to M. le Blanc, Miniſter and Secretary at War, a Lettre de Cachet from the King, commanding him to retire at leaſt 15 Leagues from the Court where-ever his Majeſty ſhould reſide. Whereupon he ſet out from hence that Evening for Doux in Brie, an Eſtate belonging to his Son-in-Law the Marqueſs de Trainel, his own Seat of Tremblay being too near to Verſailles. M. de Breteuil, Maſter of Requeſts, Intendant of Limoges, is made Miniſter and Secretary at War, in his Room. The Danae, a Ship belonging to the India Company, is arrived in Britany from China.
